ORIGINAL STASH

FIRST GEOCACHE PLACED HERE
MAY 5, 2000

N 45 17.460 W 122 24.800

It all started here on May 3, 2000, when Dave Ulmer buried a 5-gallon bucket near here and published the GPS coordinates on the internet where users of GPS devices gathered. Within a few days, other caches were placed in various places and the hobby was born. In September there were a reported 75 caches world wide with Jeremy Irish launched the

Hello there, On installing CE and GE on a machine that has never run it before in absence of internet connection or under a slow internet Isn't there any way with which I can download the Google earth data and save it for offline usage on some other computer. I know that the cache saves the data Repair problems with Google Earth Pro. To more easily do things like clear your cache or fix startup issues, use the Google Earth Repair Tool. Open Google To create a localized Google Earth cache file manually: • Start Google Earth while connected to the Internet I need to use CollectEarth with Google Earth in a developing country where internet access is very limited. Can I prepare a Google Earth cache ... 5b8c838b47
